35th Anniversary: Delta Blues Museum

Is hereby recognized as an Official Partner in the Year of the Creative Economy: Mississippi Homecoming.

Whereas Mississippi’s Creative Economy is defined as the sum of all wealth generated by the state’s cultural & creative enterprises, institutions, people and places. It also adds value to traditional economic sectors like manufacturing, agriculture, service and tourism, while influencing where people choose to travel, work and learn.

Whereas, your contribution to the economic vitality of our state is manifested through innovation, creativity and celebration of Mississippi’s rich cultural heritage, and therefore an essential component in the growth of the creative economy in our state.

The Honorable Phil Bryant,
Governor of Mississippi
